

Title I Parental Engagement Policy Bella Vista Elementary School

Bella Vista Elementary School has developed a written Title I parental engagement policy with input from Title I parents. The policy is created in conjunction with the School Site Council, teachers, staff and other parents engaged in the community in order to provide a safe, effective and inclusive environment for all students.

It has distributed the policy to parents of Title I students. This is done during the Annual Title I Parent Meeting, School Site Council Meetings, and it is available on the school website. The policy describes the means for carrying out the following Title I parental involvement requirements [20 USC 6318 Section 1118(a)-(f) inclusive].

Engagement of Parents in the Title I Program

To engage parents in the Title I program at Bella Vista Elementary School, the following practices have been established:

- The school convenes an annual meeting to inform parents of Title I students about Title I requirements and about the right of parents to be engaged in the Title I program.
 - Bella Vista Elementary School Site Council meets regularly to monitor programs at Bella Vista Elementary including the parental engagement policy. The role of the council is to jointly develop the parental engagement policy, monitor current programs and evaluate their effectiveness, and expand and/or modify program strategies and components as necessary.
 - Parents have input regarding how Title I budgets are spent at SSC meetings regularly throughout the school year. During these meetings the Bella Vista Single Plan for Student Achievement is reviewed and modified.
- The school offers a flexible number of meetings for Title I parents, such as meeting in the morning or evening.
 - Communication methods such as notices, autodialers, and Peachjar flyers are used to communicate meeting dates in the mornings/afternoons/evenings.
- The school engages parents of Title I students in an organized, ongoing, and timely way, in the planning, review, and improvement of the school's Title I programs and the Title I parental engagement policy in the following ways:
 - School Site Council Meetings
 - English Language Advisory Committee Meetings
 - Curricular focused parent workshops
 - Award assemblies
 - Student Study Team meetings (SST)
 - District sponsored parent events through the Parent Center
 - IEP Meetings
 - Community Festivals

The school provides parents of Title I students with timely information about Title I programs.

- Parents are sent written notices regarding upcoming meetings. Robo calls and Peachjar are also used to notify parents.
 - Agenda topics include:

Title I Parental Engagement Policy Bella Vista Elementary School

- Explanation of the Title I program
 - Discussion of ways parents can be engaged at the school
 - Review of parental engagement policy and the school-parent-student compact
 - Description of the PSUSD Title I written complaint policy for parents
- The school provides parents of Title I students with an explanation of the curriculum used at the school, the assessments used to measure student progress, and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet.
 - The school provides Title I parents assistance in understanding the State's academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children.
 - Parent workshops and training are designed to assist parents in how to support their child's learning at home.
 - Academic content standards and assessments are discussed and reviewed at Back to School nights and at Parent-Teacher conferences held twice during the school year.
 - If requested by parents of Title I students, the school provides opportunities for regular meetings that allow the parents to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children.
 - Input from Title I parent surveys are used to determine workshop topics
 - All SSC and ELAC meetings have a public hearing section where parents and community members can state their concerns

School-Parent Compact

Bella Vista Elementary School distributes to parents of Title I students a school-parent compact. The compact, which has been jointly developed with parents, outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement. It describes specific ways the school and families will partner to help children achieve the State's high academic standards. It addresses the following legally required items, as well as other items suggested by parents of Title I students.

- The school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction
- The way parents will be responsible for supporting their children's learning
- The importance of ongoing communication between parents and teachers through, at a minimum, annual parent-teacher conferences; frequent reports on student progress; access to staff; opportunities for parents to volunteer and participate in their child's class; and opportunities to observe classroom activities.
- Parents have the opportunity to provide input regarding the compacts at Title I annual meetings as well as at SSC and ELAC meetings.
- Parents are asked to discuss the compact with their children before each signs the compact.

Building Capacity for Engagement

Title I Parental Engagement Policy Bella Vista Elementary School

Bella Vista Elementary School engages Title I parents in meaningful interactions with the school. It supports a partnership among staff, parents, and the community to improve student academic achievement. To help reach these goals, the school has established the following practices.

- The school provides Title I parents with assistance in understanding the State's academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children.
 - The school provides Title I parents assistance in understanding the State's academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the achievement of their children.
 - Parent workshops and training are designed to assist parents in how to support their child's learning at home.
 - Academic content standards and assessments are discussed and reviewed at Back to School nights and at Parent-Teacher conferences held twice during the school year.
- The school provides Title I parents with materials and training to help them work with their children to improve their children's achievement.
 - Parent workshops are developed to assist parents in understanding the expectations of their children at school.
 - Online programs are available for parents to work with their children at home.
 - Teachers send additional academic materials home according to what is needed.
- With the assistance of Title I parents, the school educates staff members about the value of parent contributions, and in how to work with parents as equal partners.
 - Regular parent workshops and events are scheduled throughout the school year.
 - Parent workshops are scheduled before or after the school day.
 - Parents are reminded of the supports available at the District Parent Center.
- The school coordinates and integrates the Title I parental engagement program with other programs, and conducts other activities, such as parent resource centers, to encourage and support parents in more fully participating in the education of their children.
- The school distributes information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to Title I parents in a format and language that the parents understand.
 - Parents are notified of workshops and other programs and are encouraged to attend through flyers, autodialers, and Peachjar email in both English and Spanish.
- The school provides support for parental engagement activities requested by Title I parents.
 - Input from a variety of measures is used to tailor workshops and other programs.
 - Childcare is provided during parent workshops and programs to better facilitate parent attendance.

Title I Parental Engagement Policy Bella Vista Elementary School

Accessibility

Bella Vista Elementary School provides opportunities for the participation of all Title I parents, including parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory students. Information and school reports are provided in a format and language that parents understand.

- o All notices regarding meetings, activities, conferences, and events are sent in English and Spanish.
- o School notices and informational packets are sent home with parents regularly.